Lake Country Community Bank Welcomes New President

Lake Country Community Bank is pleased to announce the hiring of Mike Byrne as President. Mike comes with over 40 years of banking experience, most recently as President for 28 years at Lake Community Bank in Long Lake, Minnesota. Mike will also serve on the Board of Directors at Lake Country Community Bank.

During his banking career, Mike has been active with the Independent Bankers Association of Minnesota (ICBM), serving on various committees and was Chairman of their Board of Directors. He also served on several committees and was Director of the Board at the Independent Bankers Association of America (ICBA). Mike was active in the communities which his bank served to include Lions Club, Rotary Club and Chamber of Commerce.

In his spare time, Mike enjoys spending time at his lake home with his family and making wooden furniture. He resides in Savage along with his wife, Patricia.

Mike looks forward to meeting the customers of Lake Country Community Bank! Please feel free to stop in and say hello!

"LCCB is a great bank; full of knowledgeable and friendly staff. They all worked hard and diligently to understand our business and structure our financial needs according to OUR business and what would work best for us. Kiemeyer Construction, Inc. is extremely satisfied doing all of our banking with LCCB!"
